Valid: July 1 to June 30

Fee: RESIDENTS $20.00

SMALL BUSINESS $40.00

SENIORS (65+) FREE

Residents must show matching driver's license and registration to obtain a sticker. The sticker will be placed on the vehicle's windshield (lower left only!) at the time of issuance. New fees will apply on July 1, 2016. Thereafter, every car MUST have a sticker or the resident must buy a One Day Pass and the first sticker for SENIORS is FREE.

Stickers, Brookfield, Sherman Residents: obtain stickers from their Town Halls

One Day Pass: $3.00; good only for date of issuance

PAYMENT OPTIONS:

NO CASH! Checks OK

Punch Cards in amounts from 50¢ to $32.00. Punch Cards may be purchased at the Center, Public Works Office, Town Clerk's Office and the Library. Purchase by Credit Card is available at the Public Works Office with a 2% user fee.

SMALL BUSINESS USE:

New Milford Businesses Only.

A "small business" is one that has no more than 2 principals and 10 employees. Small businesses are required to pay the Bulky waste fees, fees for specific items and $0.10 per pound for recyclables. No MSW.

RECYCLABLES:

The Center uses "single-stream" recycling: all of your recyclables can be combined in one bag or bin.

Recyclables may be dropped off either loose or, if bagged, ONLY in clear or transparent blue bags.

No soft plastics like supermarket and pellet bags are allowed!

Below is a partial list of what can be recycled:

Most Plastics including toys and hangers

Glass: bottles, jars; food glass only

Cartons: milk, juice, cereal, egg

Cans: steel, tin, aluminum

Books: paperbacks, hardbound, phone

Cardboard: all types

Paper: bags, shredded, office, cards newspaper, computer, school, folders, magazines, inserts, junk mail

Aluminum foil

FREE TABLE

Center Personnel determine if an item may be placed on the Free Table and fees may apply, in their discretion. Parking is as directed by them. Use of the Table by metal scrappers and resellers is limited to one-half hour before closing. Use of the Table is a privilege, not a right, and the privilege may be revoked by Center personnel at any time.
