Old Business:

Flu Clinic:

Chair J. Wey thanked all that helped with the flu clinic, there were just under 60 shots administered.

Genealogy:

Chair J. Wey reported a total of 30 people in attendance for the luncheon workshop on September 2nd, 2016. Aetna provided the speaker and the CoA sponsored the food. A thank you to J. McRoberts for providing dessert.

Senior Art Show:

The Commission discussed holding a group show at the Library where there may be more exposure than the Senior Center. Further discussion is needed with Senior Center Director, Suzette Berger and Library Director, Millie Loeb to work out further details and possible dates. Commissioner Hayes has reached out to J. Jenner for advice, he was involved with the art show in the past.

New Business:

Computer Security:

Commissioner R. Hudson will be presenting a workshop in January. on preventing identity theft and general computer safety. Mr. Hudson has handouts that he will provide during the discussion. Chair, Wey provided a booklet entitled "Taking Charge, What to do if your identity is stolen".

Regional Commission on Aging Meeting:

Chair J. Wey attended the Regional meeting and reported an article recently published in the Danbury News Times which showed creative ways the Town of Danbury is offering Tax Relief through Community Service. The Commission agreed to explore the topic more to see how it might fit in for Sherman.

New For Next Month's Agenda:

S. McMahon- requested the consideration of inviting the 7th & 8th graders come to the Senior Center for a refresher "Tech Help" workshop in the Spring.

A. Jellen- the next TED Talk will be discussion "The Orphan Train"
